The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, with a fermata over the fourth measure. The lower staff contains a bass line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, and a few chords. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lower staff continues the bass line. A fermata is present over the eighth measure of the upper staff. The key signature changes to two flats (B-flat and E-flat) starting in the ninth measure. The word "Dolce." is written above the eighth measure of the lower staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lower staff continues the bass line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The key signature remains two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff features a more complex texture with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The lower staff continues the bass line. The key signature remains two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The dynamic marking "ff" (fortissimo) appears in the sixth measure of the lower staff.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the complex texture with beamed notes. The lower staff continues the bass line. The key signature remains two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

The sixth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lower staff continues the bass line. The dynamic marking "ff" (fortissimo) appears in the fourth measure of the lower staff. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
